

Currently working as Assistant Professor at "Construction Management Division" of Civil Engineering Department at YTU.

Dr. Hande Aladağ worked as a research assistant in the Construction Management division of the Civil Engineering Department between 2008-2018. She completed a doctoral degree in Architecture from Yildiz Technical University, İstanbul in 2017. Her research interest areas are construction management, project management, sustainable architecture, performance management, risk management, Public-Private Partnership type construction projects, urban regeneration, and BIM.